3rd Sunday after Easter

IMPACT Worship & Service

These 50 days of Easter invite us to recognize Christ alive all around us.

We focus on Fear of the Other: No Fear in Love and seek to connect with and learn from our neighbor.

Grab a name tag and a cup of coffee and let's make a difference in the world!

You are welcome here!

Call to Worship

One: This is a day to celebrate new life,
To be open to the wonders of God's world,
To give thanks for the beauty of all creation.

All: We are glad for green grass and flowers,
for the music of birds and raindrops.

One: This a day of gladness and joy;
We remember Jesus, who welcomed all people
and recognized the value of each one.

All: We are glad for Jesus,
Our helper and our friend.

One: Jesus is alive! His Spirit lives in us, helping us when we are afraid
or lonely or ashamed or sad.

All: Jesus shows us how much God loves us,
and lets us know we are forgiven.

One: Be glad today. Let us rejoice together.
Life is good. We are accepted and loved.

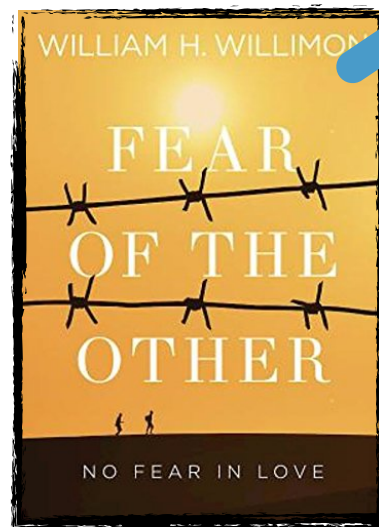

Scripture Focus for the Day

There is no fear in love, but perfect love casts out fear; for fear has to do with punishment, and whoever fears has not reached perfection in love. We love because he first loved us. Those who say, "I love God," and hate their brothers or sisters, are liars; for those who do not love a brother or sister whom they have seen, cannot love God whom they have not seen. The commandment we have from him is this: those who love God must love their brothers and sisters also.

1 John 4:18-21

IMPACT Project Focus

Continuing this Wednesday at 6:30 (meal at 5:30), join together with Bishop Will Willimon as we read and discuss Fear of the Other, No Fear in Love.

Find photos and articles of people who come from a different background or experience than you do. Bring them in and let us build a display throughout this season to learn about the diversity of humanity.
