The Prayers of Our Hearts

Shirley Diederiks - Prayers for Don. He had surgery on the 16th. He had a stimulator battery replaced. Hoping this will take some of his pain away. If it doesn't work they will do back surgery. Thank you for all your prayers.

Cindy Lang - Wesley Park, thank you for all your prayers, cards, cares and concerns at the time of my mothers passing. You are a great family to have.

Paula Pawloski - Fred, my husband, has just recently gotten out of the hospital. Praise God! Now, please pray for him as he faces a procedure in 6 or 8 weeks. Thank you.

Julie Riemersma - Pray for our country, our leaders, our states, our city and our homes.

Annette Jeltema - Prayers for my peace. Prayers also for my sister-in-law, Melba, who is struggling with my brothers death.

Val Rienks - After nurse visit on Thursday and some memory issues; the doctor is coming Monday to get a better assessment of mother-in-law to see about where she actually needs to be placed. Dr. feels that a retirement apartment community may not be the right one for Phyllis. She turned 82 on the 20th.

Nancy Carpenter - When I was a junior in high school; I attended a rally in Washington D.C. We marched to the capital to deliver petitions to make MLK's birthday a national holiday. We linked arms. It was all ages, all colors and all faiths. We sang "We Shall Overcome". I wish our country had the same feelings of love as we did then.

Chuck Johnson - Prayers for friends, J.J. and Terry. They both have some health concerns.

Act of Congregational Centering

Paul reminds us that Christ is the center of creation, of our lives, and of the world. We seek the wisdom of directions. From each direction we return to the center reminded that Christ brings healing and salvation and by God's Spirit renews the face of the earth. Let us be silent as we face our center point.

Let us face North.
From the North come strong winds and gentle breezes.

May the air we breathe be purified and may our lives feel that breath of the Spirit, strengthening and encouraging us.

Let us face South.
From the South come guidance and the beginning and end of life.
May we walk good paths, O God, living on the earth as sisters and brothers should,
rejoicing in one another's blessing,
sympathizing in one another's sorrows, and together look to you, seeking the new heaven and earth.

Let us face West.
From the West come
purifying waters.
We pray that water might be pure and available to all, and that we, too, may be purified so that life may be sustained and nurtured over the entire face of the earth.

Let us face East.
From the East, the direction of the rising sun, we glean wisdom and knowledge through desert silences and humble service.
Enable us, O God,
to be wise in our actions
and in our use of the resources of the earth,
sharing them in justice,
partaking of them in gratitude.
