Pastor's Page

I am so thankful that Master Arts Theatre has joined us this morning to share their gifts as they portray the story of the Gospel of John. It is in John 1:26-34 where we get an account of the baptism of Jesus from the perspective of John the Baptist:

John answered them, 'I baptize with water. Among you stands one whom you do not know, the one who is coming after me; I am not worthy to untie the thong of his sandal.' This took place in Bethany across the Jordan where John was baptizing. The next day he saw Jesus coming towards him and declared, 'Here is the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world! This is he of whom I said, "After me comes a man who ranks ahead of me because he was before me." I myself did not know him; but I came baptizing with water for this reason, that he might be revealed to Israel.' And John testified, 'I saw the Spirit descending from heaven like a dove, and it remained on him. I myself did not know him, but the one who sent me to baptize with water said to me, "He on whom you see the Spirit descend and remain is the one who baptizes with the Holy Spirit." And I myself have seen and have testified that this is the Son of God.'

Today at 11 am you have an opportunity to witness the Spirit at work in the Sacrament of Holy Communion for all, and in the Sacrament of Holy Baptism of Luke Jahncke. I love what the United Methodist Book of Worship says regarding baptism:

Regardless of the age of the candidate, the Christian community responds in faith to God's grace by claiming and incorporating this new member of Christ's holy Church. The congregation corporately sponsors each candidate and takes vows at each baptism that are to be taken just as seriously as the vows of parents or individual sponsors. When someone is baptized, it is a crucial event in the life both of that person and of the Church. What happens to that member of the body of Christ will make a difference to every other member, and the rest of the Church can never again be the same. By the Sacrament of Baptism the Church pledges to that member: "Your joy, your pain, your gain, your loss, are ours, for you are one of us."

Rejoice and celebrate this day for the Lamb of God has blessed you again and again and again.
