During the winter holiday of Chanukah ("dedication") children play dreidel (a spinning top). The letters on the dreidel, which determine play, stand for Nes Gadol Haya Sham: "a great miracle happened there." Jewish Ceremonies and Holidays Knowledge Cards, by Ira Steingroot

Playing with the dreidel is a traditional Hanukkah game played in Jewish homes all over the world, and rules may vary. Here's how to play the basic dreidel game:

1. Any number of people can take part.
2. Each player begins the game with an equal number of game pieces (about 10-15) such as pennies, nuts, chocolate chips, raisins, matchsticks, etc.
3. At the beginning of each round, every participant puts one game piece into the center "pot." In addition, every time the pot is empty or has only one game piece left, every player should put one in the pot.
4. Every time it's your turn, spin the dreidel once. Depending on the side it lands on, you give or get game pieces from the pot. For those who don't read Hebrew, some dreidels also feature a transliteration of each letter. If yours doesn't, use the photo below as a cheat sheet:
  - a) Nun means "nisht" or "nothing." The player does nothing.
  - b) Gimel means "gantz" or "everything." The player gets everything in the pot.
  - c) Hey means "halb" or "half." The player gets half of the pot. (If there is an odd number of pieces in the pot, the player takes half of the total plus one).
  - d) Shin (outside of Israel) means "shtel" or "put in." Peh (in Israel) also means "put in." The player adds a game piece to the pot.
5. If you find that you have no game pieces left, you are either "out" or may ask a fellow player for a "loan."
6. When one person has won everything, that round of the game is over!

Hanukkah ends tomorrow evening at sundown. Take a moment to give God thanks for "a great miracle that happened there."

Mobile Food Pantry

Diane Blauwikel had a heart for feeding the hungry, especially children. In her memory, Harry has donated the cost for the Mobile Pantry this December 6. Not only do we thank him for the generous gift, we want to remember Diane's spirit for giving to those less fortunate. We invite anyone who would like to share this spirit to join us on the 1st Thursday of the month as we make the distribution, beginning at 5pm. We are normally done by 7pm. Thanks Harry!

Musical Notes

Please join our music ministry and guest musicians as we sing and proclaim the love of God and Christ's birth at our Christmas Cantata. "Come Let Us Adore" will be performed on Sunday, December 16 at 4:00 p.m. There will be a reception to follow. If you would like to sign up to help with the reception or bring snacks/finger foods there will be a sign up at the Information Desk. We hope to see you there!

Family Promise Host Week

Our next opportunity to serve guests from Family Promise will be the week of January 6-12, 2019. Our guests will be moving in on Sunday, January 6th. It takes much prayers and many hands to make each Family Promise week successful and give our guests a loving, safe and welcoming place to stay. This being the beginning of the busy holiday season, please check your calendars and prayerfully consider when or how you might be able to assist our guests. The Signup Genius site is up and running if you wish to sign up online. You can use the following link: <https://bit.ly/2SoiyJV>.
