

The Example

John 13:14-15

Think About It

How can we address our real worries about finances, stewardship, leadership, tradition and be open to new ideas?

Scripture

Do not worry about your life.
Matthew 6:25-34

The sermon series, based on the book Who Stole My Church, continues today: Looking In

Prayer Partner

Today we will turn to someone and trust that they will pray for us, as we promise to pray for them.

Follow The Example

“So if I, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, you also ought to wash one another’s feet. For I have set you an example, that you also should do as I have done to you.”

Jesus is our example. He shows us how to bless, how to be compassionate, how to reach out and help, and how to love. This is the first Sunday of the Jesus broke bread and shared a meal with his disciples. In the course of the meal, he helped them to understand the power of relationship and that his sacrifice would bring life to all. Sign up for the Triangle Dinners, or make a point to share a meal with others, and remember the love of Jesus.

Name Tags and Welcome Desk

“Your name is important.”

Stop by the Welcome Desk in the Marv and Omie Tanis Welcome Center today. There you will find fliers on the ministries at Wesley Park, name tags, and information about our Shepherd Ministry. Choose how you want to wear your name tag: lanyard, clip, or magnet.

Also at the Welcome Desk are sign-ups, important information, friendly helpers, and another giving option: a bank-card reader.

GIVING OPTIONS

It's time to make our commitment to Christ and the church. Pick up your Stewardship Packet at the Welcome Desk and make your pledge. Our goal is 300 pledges by the end of the year. Can you help us meet that challenge?

Music and Worship

Looking In

Worship begins with a call to praise: Come! Now is the time to worship! We Gladly choose you now - the one who chose us long ago, to love.

The Children remind us of Our Friend, Jesus: If you should need a friend that's true then Jesus is the one for you. For he is faithful, true and strong, and he will never get it wrong.

As we reflect on the Word, sing these words: Draw me close to you! Never let me go! I lay it all down again to hear you say that I'm your friend!

And, as we get ready to take the Gospel into the world, we sing of God's love forever: "Oh, I feel like dancing. It's foolishness, I know. But when the world has seen the light, they will dance with the joy like we're dancing now."
