

The Example

John 13:14-15

Follow The Example

“So if I, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, you also ought to wash one another’s feet. For I have set you an example, that you also should do as I have done to you.”

Jesus is our example. He shows us how to bless, how to be compassionate, how to reach out and help, and how to love. Let us follow the Example today!

What does worship and the church feel like from the perspective of a guest?

Scripture

Do not neglect to show hospitality to strangers, for by doing that some have entertained angels without knowing it.
Hebrews 13:1-3

Series

Looking Up, with faith that God is doing something new.

Prayer Partner

Today let us turn to someone and trust that they will pray for us, as we promise to pray for them.

Compassion

For even the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give His life as a ransom for many. Mark 10:45

UMCOR Health kits provide basic necessities to people who have been forced to leave their homes because of human conflict or natural disaster. Health kits are also used as learning tools in personal hygiene, literacy, nutrition, and cooking classes. <http://www.umcor.org/>

Name Tags and Welcome Desk

“Your name is important.”

Music

Make a Joyful Noise - Psalm 100

God, who is “altogether lovely, altogether, worthy, altogether wonderful” calls us to worship, to give thanks for Jesus, our firm foundation, who gives us “a living hope and a future.” Jesus, “who was, and is, and is to come,” is the object of our worship. As we celebrate the work of the Spirit at Wesley Park through the years, we rejoice in the opportunity to “give the world a taste of the love of Jesus.”

GIVING OPTIONS

Or you can set up with your bank to send a regular offering to the church, or have the church withdrawal directly from your account with your permissions. The blue bags are for gifts that help the worldwide United Methodist mission.
